✏ About Me

As a Junior Frontend Developer;

I have gained valuable experience at Glomil Technology for 1.5 years. I possess a strong knowledge of modern web technologies such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Bootstrap, TailwindCSS, and TypeScript. With my passion for creating creative solutions and my ability to adapt quickly to the rapidly changing technological environment, I develop user-friendly and impressive web applications. With skills in project management, problem-solving, and teamwork, I adopt an approach focused on achieving success in every project. As a Frontend Developer who is dedicated to professional development, creative, and solution-oriented, I am excited about the opportunity to work with you.
